DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1 and 2 are objected to because of the following informalities: Claims 1 and 2 are objected since each claim should end with only a period. Further, the period in the preambles of claims 1 and 2 should be changed to a semicolon. (see 37 CFR 1.75 and MPEP § 608.01(i)-(p). Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rakestraw et al. (US 4,154,011). Rakestraw et al. (hereinafter Rakestraw) discloses a bracelet (10) having identification (12) on a front surface thereof as shown by figures 1 and 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Abraham (US 5,657,645) in view of Rakestraw et al. (US 4,154,011)

Abraham disclose a one piece self locking breakaway bracelet (1) made of polyurethane, col. 3, lines 1, that has a locking construction (9,15) that immediately releases under a certain amount of tension/force that could cause injury and the polyurethane bracelet does not break when normally worn about the body, col. 4, lines 8-43. However, Abraham does not show the bracelet having identification thereon.

Rakestraw et al. (hereinafter Rakestraw) discloses a bracelet (10) having identification (12) thereon as shown by figures 1 and 2.

It would have been obvious that the self-locking breakaway bracelet of Abraham can be provided with identification as taught by Rakestraw so that the desired graphics can be printed on the bracelet as required for a particular application thereof.
